In Our Place

Jesus undergoes baptism, that we might share in his resurrection.

In Our Place

- Jesus undergoes baptism, that we might share in his resurrection.
- Jesus receives the Holy Spirit, that he might pour the Holy Spirit out on us.

In Our Place

- Jesus undergoes baptism, that we might share in his death and resurrection.
- Jesus receives the Holy Spirit, that he might pour the Holy Spirit out on us.
- Jesus rests in the identity declared by his Father, that he might give us the status of “beloved sons of God.”

Our Baptisms

- Every baptism is an infant baptism.

Our Baptisms

- Every baptism is an infant baptism.
- We all come to the font completely helpless.

Our Baptisms

- Every baptism is an infant baptism.
- We all come to the font completely helpless.
- If Jesus is not in the water we will drown.

Our Baptisms

- Every baptism is an infant baptism.
- We all come to the font completely helpless.
- If Jesus is not in the water, we will drown.
- If Jesus is in the water, we will come to new life.

- If Jesus is in the water, we will come to new life.
- If Jesus is in the water, we will receive the Holy Spirit.
- If Jesus is in the water, we will hear the Father's declaration spoken over us.

Between now and heaven

- Remember our baptisms and be thankful

KEEP CALM
YOUR BAPTISM

Between now and heaven

- Remember our baptisms and be thankful
- Rest in our baptismal promises

Between now and heaven

- Remember our baptisms and be thankful
- Rest in our baptismal promises
- Live our baptismal covenant

Between now and heaven

- Remember our baptisms and be thankful
- Rest in our baptismal promises
- Live our baptismal covenant
- Look always and only to Jesus who was baptized into our death that we might share in his life.
